usual but the programme will be a special treat.

SUNDAY CONCERTS AND SUNDAY LECTURES

The four illustrated lectures which were held on Sunday afternoons in the Print Room at the beginning of the season were so popular that it was decided to continue the idea. For the rest of the winter CONCERTS and LECTURES will be given on alternate Sundays, the Concerts in the Sculpture Court and the Lectures in the Print Room.

It is not possible at this time to give advance notice of the speakers for the Lecture Series, so watch your Saturday papers for the Art Gallery of Toronto advertisement.

- WATCH FOR THE "THORNE ROOMS"
Opening February 11th

The Thorne European Miniature Rooms will be on view at the Gallery from February 11th to June 6th. These small masterpieces illustrate the different types of interior decoration in England, France and Germany from early 16th century to the present day. This exhibition is being sponsored by the Women's Committee. There are 30 of these little rooms, constructed with great delicacy and accuracy by Mrs. J. Ward Thorne of Chicago to a scale of one inch to one foot.

Every Friday evening, exclusive of Openings, will be open to groups of 150 to 300. The charge will be $1.00 per person, including a view of the Thorne Rooms, tours of the current exhibitions and refreshment.

The charge to enter the Gallery and view the Rooms in addition to the current exhibitions -

Daily from 10 to 5 and on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings - 50¢ - Gallery members 25¢

We will make special arrangements to serve a snack lunch to out-of-town groups of from 10 to 40 persons who wish to come on Wednesday or Friday, for an additional 50¢ per person.
